

Please do not turn back civilization once again. Our family now have their time free to eat together in the evening, instead of having to keep getting up and answering the phone. There is a public mail system that can be used in this country to contact us. It would also help boost the funds of the Mail service, which is always complaining that they do not have enough money. We will keep fighting until our privacy is respected by our Government.